Monday, March 2, 2015, Monthly Neighborhood Meeting @ 7PM, Silverado Middle School, Classroom SC-3 (The buildings have names so look for the name that has the initials SC.)

We're pleased to announce that we will have a guest speaker on March 2nd, Kathy Barsodi from Roseville Parks and Recreation Department, to discuss the great offerings they have available for us. We would love to have you join us and please - invite your neighbors to come as well!

Changes for WONA

Two new Members at Large were added at the last meeting-Brenda Pieper and Paul Garbien. Welcome!

Roseville CA Police Department Update at the Last Meeting

The Roseville Police Department has noticed an uptick in residential burglaries in our area. They created two useful documents for us. They are available on our Facebook NOTES page or by emailing a request to us:

- Home Security Checklist (designed to do a personal audit on your home security)
- Recognizing and Reporting Suspicious Activity – Tips to help Law Enforcement

At our association meeting last month, Officer Miller also shared how vital it is for each of us to call if you see a suspicious vehicle or person out of place. The non-emergency Roseville Police number is 916-774-5000. He said you would never be bothering the police department and you won't get in trouble for calling to report something. If you can, call as soon as you notice something out of place or have a concern. Try not to wait until later or the next day. People don't call often enough or early enough. And if you don't already receive the weekly Public Safety and Neighborhood News email you can sign up here, <https://www.roseville.ca.us/portal>

Woodcreek Oaks Neighborhood Facebook Group
